HOBY Washington: Preparing Future Leaders

150 high school sophomores and 50 volunteers will gather at Cornish College of the Arts June 2-5, 2011 for the annual HOBY Washington Leadership Seminar. Here are highlights of what they'll experience.

Learning and Exploring

HOBY Washington participates in a national deliberation about the future role of the United States in the World. The Diversity Panel and "The Wall" are a time when Ambassadors (and Volunteers) can share their own stories of prejudice, racism, sexism, or other ways that they have experienced diversity. They experience the power of choices and how each one of us can make a difference in the world.

Leadership for Service

Each year at HOBY Washington we commit one half-day to community service. Last year we partnered with Alex's Lemonade Stand to raise money for cancer research. See: <https://www.alexlemonade.org/>. The HOBY Ambassadors managed lemonade stands at five locations around the Gonzaga Campus in Spokane. Some of the stands were given extra "challenges" such as no talking or no gesturing. In just two and one-half hours, the five stands raised $1122 for cancer research. The Ambassadors were then challenged to complete at least 100 hours of service in their home communities, making a broad impact throughout the state.
